Exhibitions and Events

Short of hands for an exhibition or event? Need help organising files in the office, or to cope with an unexpected workload? Dependable and well-groomed, Salaam Wanita members are ready to help out - and save companies a great deal of hassle.

Why Choose Salaam Wanita?

Make a difference

Our members face various challenges in eking out a decent living for their families. They are hardworking, resourceful and are driven by the desire to give themselves and their loved ones a reasonably good quality of life.

You can help improve the standard of living for them and their families. In the process, you will also have a hand in building their self-confidence and self-esteem.

You can empower them to help themselves.

Competitive Pricing

Working from home means much lower overheads – and greater attention to detail and quality. It will mean you needn't pay through your nose to get quality work done, and on time, too.

Environmental Awareness

Salaam Wanita is an environmentally conscious community and our members recycle and reuse products as evidenced in the eco-baskets. Like you, we want our children to have a safe world to live in. We care about reducing wastage and slowing the harvest of forests.

Confidentiality assured

You can trust us. We never sell or reuse documents you entrust us to type or translate. And we do not divulge information about our clients to a third party.
